- * Unless it is an emergency, please stay until the conclusion of the program.

Thank you!

Wednesday, March 4—Ashbrook and Oorts—Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with the music of the Emerald Isle. Ashbrook and Oorts play a variety of instruments particularly suited to Irish music. Karen Ashbrook is an internationally known hammered dulcimer player and husband Paul Oorts plays guitar, accordion, and more. The Washington Post described their collaboration as "wonderfully energetic and exquisitely arranged."

Wednesday, March 11—Ericka Ovette—How are things in Glocca Mora? Ericka will tell you as she weaves the tale and sings songs from the Broadway hit Finian's Rainbow. Musical selections including Look to the Rainbow and Old Devil Moon transport you to the mythical land of Missitucky in search of a leprechaun's hidden pot of gold. Although best known for her interpretation of jazz standards, Ericka is equally at home with songs celebrating the Emerald Isle.

Wednesday, March 18—Jack Stanton—A Friendship Heights favorite, Jack Stanton brings a bit of the blarney to his high-energy song and dance performance. With a bit of the luck of the Irish you may just cajole him into singing more than a few bars of When Irish Eyes Are Smiling, Danny Boy and Mother Machree.

Wednesday, March 25—Dixie Power Trio—Hailing from Fredericksburg, VA, this four-man "trio" delivers an exciting combination of New Orleans jazz, Dixieland and zydeco. Led by Zack Smith, the band also features Andy Kochenour, Wayne Wilkinson and Byron McWilliams.
